Go Home Roger - Ziiico Niico f...

FlossCityHD is a movement that has no quit, with Ziiico Niico & Bigg Base being the driving force that makes the "Bronx Crew" engine run, the Bronx natives have quietly started to make an impact on the Hip-hop scene. With successful releases from Ziiico & his mix tape "Im Heem" creating a buzz, the path is now clear for his partner in crime Bigg Base to step to the plate and go for the jugular of the industry. With his new video "Go Home Roger" feat Ziiico Niico, Base gives us raw lyrics and the swagger of a young, hungry man trying to eat at all cost. Checkout "Go Home Roger" and see why FlossCityHD won't be denied.

The Bronx the birthplace of hip-hop has a rich history of emcees & crews that have left its imprint on the music game. As time has passed rap groups have come and gone, but none of them have had the ability to achieve & maintain long-term success. Now that's about to change with some new energy & talent that has emerged from the "North Bronx", and that new found energy is "FlossCityHD." This crew from the upper part of the Bronx is thick as thieves and that's evident as you delve deep into the "FlossCityHD" network. Up first to set the pace and tone of the crew is "Ziiico Niico" and his latest visual "Uptown Poppin." In which he gives you a firsthand look at the "FlossCityHD" movement and why the Bronx is buzzing about the crew. Everything they do is a movie and on a big scale, making them the talk of the hood. Ziiico recently released a new project "I'm Heem" on Datpiff and is starting to garner the attention of the industry. Checkout Ziiico Niico "Uptown Poppin" and see why the FlossCityHD movement is something to pay attention to!
